The National Curriculum Framework, 2005, recommends that children’s life at school must be linked to their life outside the school. This principle marks a departure from the legacy of bookish learning which continues to shape our system and causes a gap between the school, home and community. The syllabi and textbooks developed on the basis of NCF signify an attempt to implement this basic idea. They also attempt to discourage rote learning and the maintenance of sharp boundaries between different subject areas. We hope these measures will take us significantly further in the direction of a child-centred system of education outlined in the National Policy on Education (1986).

The success of this effort depends on the steps that school principals and teachers will take to encourage children to reflect on their own learning and to pursue imaginative activities and questions. We must recognise that given space, time and freedom, children generate new knowledge by engaging with the information passed on to them by adults. Treating the prescribed textbook as the sole basis of examination is one of the key reasons why other resources and sites of learning are ignored. Inculcating creativity and initiative is possible if we perceive and treat children as participants in learning, not as receivers of a fixed body of knowledge.

These aims imply considerable change in school routines and mode of functioning. Flexibility in the daily time-table is as necessary as rigour in implementing the annual calendar so that the required number of teaching days are actually devoted to teaching. The methods used for teaching and evaluation will also determine how effective this textbook proves for making children’s life at school a happy experience, rather than a source of stress or boredom. Syllabus designers have tried to address the problem of curricular burden by restructuring and reorienting knowledge at different stages with greater consideration for child psychology and the time available for teaching. The textbook attempts to enhance this endeavour by giving higher priority and space to opportunities for contemplation and wondering, discussion in small groups, and activities requiring hands-on experience.

NCERT appreciates the hard work done by the textbook development committee responsible for this book. We wish to thank the Chairperson of the advisory group at the primary level, Professor Anita Rampal and the Chief Advisor for this book, Professor R. Lalitha Eapen (CIEFL, Hyderabad) for guiding the work of this committee. Several teachers contributed to the development of this textbook; we are grateful to their principals for making this possible. We are indebted to the institutions and organisations which have generously permitted us to draw upon their resources, material and personnel.
We are especially grateful to the members of the National Monitoring Committee, appointed by the Department of Secondary and Higher Education, Ministry of Human Resource Development under the Chairpersonship of Professor Mrinal Miri and Professor G.P. Deshpande, for their valuable time and contribution. As an organisation committed to the systemic reform and continuous improvement in the quality of its products, NCERT welcomes comments and suggestions which will enable us to undertake further revision and refinement.

Good morning, sky;
Good morning, sun;
Good morning, little winds that run!
Good morning, birds;

And creeping grass, and brownie bees!

Who told you night had gone away?

I’m up now, too.
I’ll be right out to play with you!

I like to sing when the sun is shining, tra la la la la, tra la la la.
The magic garden was in a school playground. It was very pretty. Sunflowers and roses stood high against the wall. There were also marigolds, poppies and pansies.

The sunshine fell on this garden more than on any other and the flowers danced and sang happily. They said to one another, “We have hundreds of little gardeners.” They were the children from the school.

One sunny morning the flowers were talking to the birds.

“I love all the children, but I love the dear little ones most of all,” said a poppy. “I like them to bring their watering cans and water my thirsty roots.”

“Yes,” said the marigolds, “the boys are good to us too. They dig the ground so well!”
“We love the little children,” said a tiny bird. “They are kind and they bring bread for us.”

All the flowers said, “We must work hard to make our dresses very pretty, for the children will be here soon.”

The sun said, “I will help you also, for nothing pleases me better than to see the children running about in the golden sunshine.”

Suddenly, the children came out laughing and singing, and the flowers stopped their songs to listen to them.

“Oh, look at the tall sunflower!” said one child, and the sunflower lifted its head very proudly.

Another child said, “I love the marigold in its golden dress.” The marigold smiled happily.
It was indeed a magic garden because it had fairies too. They danced and sang sweet songs which only the children could hear.

After a time the fairies came out dancing and talked with the children. Their dresses were made of flowers and their wings of sunshine.

The magic garden was quiet that night. The flowers and birds were asleep and dreaming of the next day when the children would come again.

This is your page which you can use as a reference. All teachers can think of situations to ‘motivate’ students. Suggestions for teaching, making classes interesting and stimulating, management as well as outlines of each unit are given on this page. Please use these pages as much as you can.

Themes
- The child and nature
- The world around
- Appreciation of beauty in nature

Suggestions for classroom teaching
- Read the pre-reading questions aloud to introduce the theme and mood of the poem. Read the poem aloud with appropriate actions.
- Ask the children to look at the picture and describe it.
- Read the story aloud slowly and with expressions.
- Encourage the children to look at their books as you read. Read it aloud many times and on consecutive days. Repeated reading helps the child to understand the language and to learn to read.

For team time
- Make children form five or six groups. The song ‘when the sun is shining’ can be followed by ‘when the rain is falling’ and ‘when the wind is blowing’.
- Children can start a small garden in pots or outdoors and grow seeds. This activity can continue over several weeks.
- Encourage children to make a Flower Scrap Book. Help them to label the flowers and leaves which they collect and press.
- Use the blackboard to put down new words. The child can have a notebook for new words. New words can also be put up on chart paper or on the walls. As the activity progresses you can change the charts to accommodate word-families like adjectives, adverbs, nouns, prefixes and suffixes. You can put up tenses, opposites etc. Put up new words (about 10) each week.
Do you think birds find people funny? Let’s listen to what the robin and the jay have to say.

Bird Talk

‘Think...’ said the robin, ‘Think...’ said the jay, sitting in the garden talking one day.

Think about people the way they grow: they don’t have feathers at all, you know.

They don’t eat beetles, they don’t grow wings, they don’t like sitting on wires and things.’

‘Think!’ said the robin. ‘Think!’ said the jay. ‘Aren’t people funny to be that way?’

New words

beetles, sitting, wires, funny

NINA AND THE BABY SPARROWS

There was great joy in Nina’s house. Nina’s aunt was getting married. Nina, her father, mother and little brother were all going to Delhi for a wedding. Everyone was happy, except Nina.

Her mother took her to the market to buy a new dress.
“What colour would you like?” Mother asked.
“I don’t want a new dress, Mother,” said Nina.
“Salwar-kameez then?”
Nina shook her head.
“What about those lovely white shoes you saw last week?”
“I don’t want those, either. Thank you, Mother.”

Nina’s mother was upset, but she said nothing. They went back home and had lunch. After lunch mother came and sat near Nina. “What is it, child?” she asked. “Why did you say ‘no’ to everything?”
“Mother, I don’t want to go to the wedding.”

“But why?”

Nina said nothing. Instead, two big tears rolled down her cheeks. Mother put her arms around Nina. “Don’t cry, my pet,” she said. “Why don’t you tell me what’s bothering you?”

More tears rolled down Nina’s cheeks. “Mother,” she said, “there’s a sparrow’s nest on the bookshelf in my room. And there are two baby sparrows in the nest.”

“I see...” said mother.

“They’re just beginning to get their feathers. And growing up makes them so hungry. All day long they cry ‘cheep-cheep’, asking for food.”

“I see!” said Mother.

“If we go, the whole place will be locked. And how will papa and mama sparrows feed their babies?”

“Oh Nina,” cried Mother, giving her a big hug. “Is that why you don’t want to go to the wedding? But that’s no problem at all. We’ll leave the window open.”

“Oh, can we, Mother? Can we? Really?”

“Yes, yes. We’ll remove all your things from the room and lock the door on the outside. So the house will be perfectly safe and papa and mama sparrows can come and go freely, too. Just think, Nina... while you enjoy yourself at the wedding, the baby sparrows will be getting nice and fat in their nest. Good idea, isn’t it?”

It was a good idea. When Nina came back from the wedding, there were two plump little sparrows flying all over the room. And wasn’t Nina thrilled!

THEMES

- Differences and disabilities in nature

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM TEACHING

- Warm up activity can be done by reading the pre-reading questions aloud to introduce the theme or topic of the poem.
- Read and re-read the poem aloud laying stress on certain words and phrases.
- Take children for a Nature walk outdoors. Point to the birds they may see on the trees or flying about. Encourage them to look for birds and listen attentively to their sounds. Let the children express their thoughts and feelings freely.
- Talk about differences between different kinds of birds, e.g. in size, shape, colour, beaks, sounds etc.
- Discuss how birds are different from us. People can be different from each other too. Talk about differences with special reference to children with special needs, e.g. visually handicapped or physically challenged. Discuss how such children can excel in other fields like music, art etc.
- Read the story aloud to the children. The story may be retold with the help of the pictures. Encourage children to guess the meanings of difficult words, before you explain.
- Read instructions for the bird activity and help children to make a bird-bath and a feeding corner. Show them how to make finger puppets. Explain the position and names of the fingers to children. Encourage theme-based conversation.
- Children could be asked to bring pictures of birds to class. Help them to make small charts and put these up for the class to see.
- Discuss with children how sparrows are becoming fewer in cities and towns. What would this mean for us?
Even the biggest trees begin life as tiny seeds. Read about how the little acorn grew big.

Little by Little

“Little by little,” an acorn said,
As it slowly sank in its mossy bed;
“I am improving every day,
Hidden deep in the earth away.”
Little by little each day it grew,
Little by little it sipped the dew.

Downward it sent out a thread-like root
Up in the air sprang a tiny shoot;
Day by day, and year by year,
Little by little the leaves appear,
And the slender branches spread far and wide
Till the mighty oak is the forest’s pride.

New words

1. Name the tree that the acorn grows into.
2. What things does a seed need to grow?

THEMES

- Plants, trees, vegetables
- Growth
- The importance of trees and plants in our lives.

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM TEACHING

- Read the poem aloud so that children appreciate the beauty of the words and phrases. Let children recite the poem.
- Help children with the materials for the plant growing activity. You can use blotting paper, damp cotton wool or muslin cloth placed on a plate.
- Discuss the importance of plants and trees and all the things we get from them. Encourage children to help you make a list on the blackboard.
- You can also emphasise how plants help to keep the air fresh and clean.
- Let the class talk about the cutting of trees around where they live. Let them imagine a world without trees (Where will the birds go? etc.).
- The story must be read out for enjoyment. In telling the story the imagination of the child should be so raised that he actively participates, is ready to enjoy the text and is certain that success will follow.
- A story with repetitions is always loved by children and is found to be more useful in dramatisation. The children can use their own words to make a new sentence. This language experience has more life and meaning.
- Tell the class why vegetables are good for us. You could ask the children to bring one vegetable each to the class. This can help them in the writing activity.
- Encourage children to guess the meanings of difficult words, before you explain them.
Have you ever collected shells? Enjoy this poem about a shell that sings.

Sea Song

I found a shell, a curly one,
Lying on the sand,
I picked it up and took it home,
Cold inside my hand.

Mummy looked at it and then
She held it to my ear,
And from the shell there came a song,
Soft and sweet and clear.

I was surprised – I listened hard,
But it was really true.
I wish you’d find a nice big shell
And hear it singing too!

A LITTLE FISH STORY

There are a great many million fish in the seas, but this story is about just one of them, and a very small one at that.

Now this little fish had everything in the seas to make him contented, but he was not happy. You will laugh when I tell you why he was not. He was unhappy because he was so very small.

“It is very hard to be such a little mite of a fish!” he would say, over and over again. “If I were only larger, how much happier I could be.” And he said it so many times that I think he believed it.

One day he was swimming along with the rest of his school and thinking, no doubt, how much more the larger fish had to be thankful for than he, when suddenly, with no warning, they found themselves in the meshes of a great net.

There was much floundering and splashing as the net was drawn up out of the water into the sunlight, and just as its haul was being... emptied into the boat, the smallest fish in the school wriggled through the mesh and slipped back into the cool clear water. How good it felt!

He swam here and there and everywhere, and some of the fish who knew him well all the rest of his life, said that they never again heard him say that he wished to be anything but a little fish.

Enos B. Comstock

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM TEACHING
- Read the poem aloud.
- Encourage the children to recite the poem with appropriate actions and gestures.
- Help children to find rhyming words and opposites.
- Explain the difficult words in the text.
- Let the children try to say the tongue twister (She sells sea-shells...) aloud as clearly as they can. These and some more like Shoes and socks shock Shyam, Bring back buttons, beans, and buns etc., can be said quite slowly at first and the speed can be increased later.
- Encourage the children to make different sounds.
- The story can be read aloud with expression and gestures. The children can be given ideas and opportunities to express themselves. World building can become an interesting game as children practise correct pronunciation and build up words.
- You can talk about disaster management as in the case of accidents, floods, fire and earthquakes. What are the safety measures to be taken? How can we help victims? Introduce terms like ‘tsunami’. Let them talk about stories they have heard about the tsunami, earthquakes etc.
- Ask the children whether they eat fish. Tell them about the different kinds of fish in the sea and other water animals, big and small, and about their life underwater.
- This unit can introduce the important issue of water pollution by man and its harmful effects on sea life.
Does a balloon man visit your market? Let’s see what this balloon man brings with him.

The Balloon Man

He always comes on market days
And holds balloons – a lovely bunch –
And in the market square he stays,
And never seems to think of lunch.

They’re red and purple, blue and green,
And when it is a sunny day
The carts and people get between
You see them shining far away.

And some are big and some are small,
All tied together with a string.
And if there is a wind at all
They tug and tug like anything.

Some day perhaps he’ll let them go
And we shall see them sailing high,
And stand and watch them from below —
They would look pretty in the sky!

THE YELLOW BUTTERFLY

A yellow butterfly flew around in Sonu’s garden.

Sonu saw the butterfly. He ran to catch it.

The butterfly flew to the rose bed. It sat on a red rose.

“Now I can catch it!” said Sonu. He walked slowly and silently to catch the butterfly. He came closer, closer, and still closer, but then...

Off flew the butterfly!

Where did the butterfly go? Near the garden was a pond. In the pond was a white lotus. Around it grew round leaves. They floated in the water.

The butterfly sailed on a floating leaf. Sonu went splash into the water and...

Off flew the butterfly!

Where was it? Sonu looked up, he looked down. Near the wall was a peach tree. It had pink flowers. The butterfly sat on a pretty flower.

“I can catch you!” shouted Sonu. He climbed up the tree. Up, up he climbed, but....

Back it flew, down from the tree.

Sonu jumped down too. He chased the butterfly.

From the rose, to the lotus, and, Up the peach tree, but... He could not catch the butterfly.
Sonu could not see it at all. He looked everywhere. At last he saw the butterfly.

There was a big spider’s web in the peach tree. The butterfly was caught in the spider’s web. It looked sad as it tried to escape. It fluttered its wings. It twisted and turned. But it could not escape. The spider’s web held it tight.

Poor butterfly!
In the middle of the web was a big spider. It looked hungry. It wanted to catch the butterfly.
Closer and closer crawled the black spider.
Before the hungry spider could grab it, Sonu ran and... he caught the butterfly!

It was so pretty. It had brown spots on its yellow wings. Sonu loved the little butterfly.
But it looked sad in Sonu’s hand. Sonu wanted it to be happy.
“Go,” said Sonu, “Fly away!”

He let the butterfly go. It sat on the red rose. It flew to the peach tree and then sailed on a lotus leaf. It flew merrily from flower to flower.

Sonu watched it fly and fly.

The butterfly flew all around Sonu’s garden.... happy and free once again.

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM TEACHING

- With a new poem, ask children to remember words and outstanding lines. While reading, let children look for lines they like best, enjoy them and make a picture of them “in their minds”.

- You can bring a packet of brightly coloured balloons and thread to class. Take the children out into the playground. Let each child blow one balloon and tie it tightly with a piece of thread. Now let them leave the balloons and watch them fly up with the breeze. Talk about how high they will fly in the sky. Talk also about the other things one can see in the sky including birds, butterflies, balloons, clouds etc. and their different colours.

- The story must be read in a clear voice, and appropriate expressions so that it is told well and will live in the memory of the children.

- Take children outdoors if possible, where they see butterflies on flowers and tell them about how they feed on nectar. Draw the body of a butterfly on the blackboard. Talk to the children about its different parts.

- Paper folding activity: Give every child a square piece of paper. Let them colour it with dots and lines before making a butterfly.

- Help children to make colourful balloons by cutting pictures from old magazines and newspapers. They can stick these on chart papers and put them up in the class.

- Help children to find out the colours in the maze by reading the letters vertically and horizontally.

- Explain the difficult words in the text. You can supply pictures for them. Write new sentences on the blackboard. This way you can also teach words and spaces and later a long word, a sentence etc. Jumbled sentences can be presented in some attractive way to be corrected by the child.

THEMES
- Land and land forms
- Travel

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM TEACHING
- Read the poem aloud with appropriate expressions. Explain the difficult words in the text like freight cars, precious, plains, dusk, dawn etc.
- Give information about different land forms like mountains, plains, valleys etc. Talk about places where trains can run and where they cannot (e.g. high mountains). You can discuss different modes of transport on land. You can also talk about the different kinds of roads around your town or village and the local modes of transport used here e.g. bullock carts, camels, cycles, buses, scooters etc.
- Cut out some sheets of paper in squares for the paper folding activity and give one piece to each child. You may even use old newspapers for making an aeroplane. Do allow the children to enjoy the activity by flying them in the class/ground for one period. However, make sure that the children pick up all the bits of paper once the activity is over.
- Emphasise the importance of cleanliness of one's surroundings. Dustbins should be kept in the classroom and in a corner of the school playground for all waste paper, fruit peels, wrappers etc.
- Help the children to enact The Race.
- The class can also be made to enact a scene from a railway station (have characters like porters, vendors, passengers, etc.).
- Let children enjoy moving to a beat and playing instruments in rhythm. They can sing to the accompaniment of rhythmic sounds made with their hands, feet, mouth, etc. with other parts of their bodies.
Enjoy the rhythm of this poem.

There was a mother tiger and her small tiger cub. They lived near a river in a shady jungle. When the sky was dark, the mother tiger hunted for deer and pig. The tiger cub stayed close by his mother’s side.

When the Langur monkey saw her, he called a loud, harsh call: "Watch out! A tiger is coming!" The sambhar deer bellowed, the kakar deer barked, and sometimes the game got away. She hunted then for jungle fowl, for pheasant and for frog, or went to the river for fish. But she did not hunt every night.

If the moon was bright, the mother tiger lay down and waited for the dawn. She twitched the tip of her tail, and the tiger cub pounced on her tail again and again.
If he went too far away, the mother tiger called him with a low, quiet grunt. The tiger cub came back, but he did not like to stay near his mother in the jungle at night.

One night the mother tiger was tired and closed her eyes. The tiger cub saw a tiny frog, hopping along the ground. The tiger cub pounced, but the frog hopped away. He chased the frog and caught it, and turned to show it to his mother. But she was not in sight. Instead he saw a tiger, bigger than his mother, near him in the jungle.

The tiger's green eyes glistened as he watched the tiger cub. The tiger cub was frightened. He could not hide or run. He let the frog hop away. The tiger crept up closer to the little tiger cub.

But a roar filled the jungle, the roar of the mother tiger! She faced the other tiger and he went away. The mother tiger liked to roar, a loud, big tiger roar, to tell all the other animals in the jungle that she was there. All the other animals in the jungle kept far, far away.
The tiger cub also liked to roar, a loud tiger-cub roar, to tell all the other animals in the jungle that he was there.

But all the other animals in the jungle were not afraid at all and none of them ran away.

But, there came a year when the small tiger cub was a full-grown tiger. He walked for miles alone, hunting for game at night. When he roared to tell all the other animals in the jungle that he was there, all the other animals in the jungle kept far, far away. And the great big tiger that had been a small tiger cub, hearing his own loud roar, smiled to himself a great big tiger smile.

UNIT VII

THEMES

- Pets, animal homes and animal friends
- The importance of animals in our lives

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM TEACHING

- Read the poem aloud. Let the children appreciate its rhythm.
- Encourage children to guess the meanings of difficult words, before you explain.
- Talk to the children about the different kinds of pets/animals they may have — a dog, goat, cow etc. Let them tell the class how they feed and keep them clean and healthy. They can talk about their love for their pets. Also talk of the emotional bonding between animals and their young ones.
- Discuss animals of the jungle and what they eat, where they live etc. Also talk about different animal homes.
- While teaching this Unit you must emphasise the importance of showing care and respect to all animals big or small, domestic or wild. Children should understand how important it is to protect all animals.
- You can discuss with them the decreasing number of tigers and other wild animals because of hunting and killing. Talk of a world where there may be no animals in the future.
- Ask children to draw and paint different animal masks out of thick paper for the role-play activity.
- Encourage the children to watch animal-based programmes on television. Let them talk about these in the class.
- Ask the children to draw their favourite animals or a scene from one of their favourite stories about animals.
- Encourage the children to tell stories about animals as they have heard from their elders.

Mother, your baby is silly! She is so very childish! She does not know the difference between the lights in the streets and the bright stars.

When we play with pebbles, she thinks they are real food. She even tries to put them into her mouth.

When I open a book before her and ask her to learn her $a \ b \ c$, she tears the pages with her hands and roars with joy at nothing. This is your baby's way of doing her lessons!
When I shake my head at her in anger and scold her, or call her naughty, she laughs and thinks it great fun.

Everybody knows that Father is away, but sometimes I call out "Father" playfully. She looks quickly about her in excitement and thinks that Father is near.

Sometimes I hold a class with the donkeys that our washerman brings to carry away the dirty clothes. I warn her that I am the schoolmaster and that she better not make any noise. Only then she keeps quiet. I insist that she should call me "dada".

Your baby wants to catch the moon. She is really funny.

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM TEACHING

- Read the poem with proper stress and intonation. Help the children to recite the poem with you with appropriate actions.
- Let them also read and enjoy the poem silently.
- Encourage children to guess the meanings of difficult words, before you explain.
- Ask the children to bring one inland letter each. Show them on the blackboard where to write the date, address etc. using the new format, where the address, date, and the name of the letter writer are aligned on the left hand margin. Ask them to write a letter with a proper beginning and ending. This can also be done in pairs.
- If it is possible, arrange a visit to the local post office.
- Children can also make greeting cards with colourful drawings. Encourage them to fold paper in different ways to make cards, e.g. a card with a border, a card opening in the middle, a card folded into four and so on.
- Discuss the different forms of communication like telephone, telegram, email etc. with advantages and disadvantages of each.
- You should enjoy telling the story. The teacher does not tell it merely to inform, enlighten or amuse but because it is something so good, so delightful. You must remember that to be friends with your story you must grasp it, feel it, and share it with the children.
- Let children talk about their brothers, sisters, cousins etc. Bring out the concept of caring and sharing, and emotional bonding within families.

Read about what this child feels.

Don’t Tell

There are lots of things
They won’t let me do —
I’m not big enough yet,
They say.
So I patiently wait
Till I’m all grown-up;
And I’ll show Them all,
One day.
I could show Them now
If they gave me the chance,
There are things I could do
If I tried.
But nobody knows,
No nobody knows, that I’m
Really a giant,
Inside.

Once upon a time there was a small hill. A path went up the hill. It went through thick and lovely woods of pine and fir trees. People often walked on it to a holy place.

One day when the sun shone high in the sky, many people were seen climbing up the hill. They were climbing slowly and carefully.

A girl also climbed the hill with them. Her name was Meena. Meena was twelve years old. She carried a small boy on her back.

He was four years old. His hair was curly. His eyes were black and his face was as fresh as the morning dew.

As the sunshine danced through the trees, Meena climbed the hill slowly and steadily. Meena was happy. The boy was also happy.

A man in the group looked at Meena. He felt sorry for her. He asked her, “My child, why are you carrying a boy on your back? Don't you feel his load?”

Meena looked at him in wonder. She could not understand him. (Her brother was unable to walk). Meena asked, “Load? Of course not! He is my brother!”

Let’s know these signs

Sign Language is a visual language, consisting of signs, gestures, finger spelling and facial expressions.

Children who cannot hear may use sign language for communication. Sign language uses the hands to send information and the eyes to receive them. It is a visual manual language system with its own sentence structure and word order. Sign language is a part of total communication method used with people who are hard of hearing. In addition to sign language the Total Communication method involves other modes of communication like lipreading, voice amplification, writing, gesture and visual imagery (pictures). Although using sign language is important for communication, it can also be an adventure for everyone.

Here are some words that you can learn in sign language. Show and say as seen in the pictures below

Sing
Right “open” hand, facing in touches the mouth and moves to the right like waving.

Dance
Both “zero” hands, facing out move from shoulder to front of chest alternately, twice.
Read
Both “open” hands, palms facing at chest level, move from side to side in a symmetric way.

Write
Act out as if writing on to the palm of the left hand.

Win
Right “thumbs-up” hand, move up to right shoulder from front of chest.

Lose
Right “thumbs-up” hand, moves from right shoulder to front of chest to end with thumb pointing down.

Sunrise
Right “bent five” hand, facing left, moves from the waist level on the right side, up above the head.

Sunset
Right “bent five” hand, facing left, moves from above the head to the waist level on the left side, and rests facing down.

UNIT IX

THEMES

- Growing up, expressing emotions and feelings.

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM TEACHING

- Read the pre-reading questions aloud to introduce the theme of the poem. Let the children talk individually about something they want to do very much but which their adults won't let them do. You can then ask them to think about why adults seem to be behaving unreasonably and if there might be some reason behind it e.g. if a child wants to drive a vehicle, why can’t he or she do so?

- Explain to the class through examples how friends, brothers, sisters and family are very important in the life of a person.

- This Unit is a good opportunity to talk about special children, their needs and problems. It is important to tell the class that special children need our understanding and acceptance.

- Encourage children to guess the meanings of difficult words, before you explain.

- Discuss and help them with the activities. You may explain short forms of the words and their significance in our conversation e.g. Are – ’re, Will – ’ll. Listing of the contractions may be done on the blackboard.

- After this unit is completed children can tell the class about their ambitions i.e. what they want to be when they grow up.

For teaching sign language

- You can start with signing a few words. Repeat in different situations so that meaning is attached to your hand movements. Talk when you sign. Keep your language simple. Use appropriate facial expression with signs and speech.
Let’s move in different ways and see who has the most fun!

How Creatures Move

The lion walks on padded paws,
The squirrel leaps from limb to limb,
While flies can crawl straight up a wall,
And seals can dive and swim.
The worm he wiggles all around,
The monkey swings by his tail,
And birds may hop upon the ground
Or spread their wings and sail.
But boys and girls
Have much more fun:
They leap and dance
And walk and run.

New words
padded, limb, crawl, dive, wiggles
Reading is fun

- Underline all the action words in the poem.

Talk time

- Why do boys and girls have the most fun?

Let’s write

1. Match the words in Column A with those in Column B.

<table>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Worms</td>
<td>walk</td>

<tr>

2. Now make sentences of your own using the matching words.

Example — The seals dive into the icy water.

THE SHIP OF THE DESERT

Lion (roaring): Who are you?
Camel (looking down at the Lion): I am the Ship of the Desert. Who are you?
Lion: Don’t you know me? I’m the King of the Forest.
Camel: Are you? Oh, I see.
Lion (frowning): You call yourself the Ship of the Desert. How can you be a ship, you’re an animal?
Camel (smiling): So I am, but people call me the Ship of the Desert. I can walk across the desert even on a hot afternoon. The sand burns but it doesn’t bother me.

Lion: I can’t believe it.

Camel: Can you walk across a desert?

Lion (blinking): No, I can’t, but I can run in the forest.

Camel (with disdain): Every animal can do that. I alone can run on sand. I can run on sand at 25 kilometres an hour.

Lion (wonderingly): How can you do that?
Camel: Look at my feet. They are thick and padded. The hot sun does not burn them.

Lion: My feet are padded too. Thorns don’t prick them and I can run 80 kilometres an hour.

Camel: That is true. You can run 80 kilometres an hour in the forest but can you run even a mile on the hot sand?

Lion: May be not but....

Camel (interrupting): And you can’t live without water for a week, can you?

Lion: No, I can’t. I need water everyday. But don’t tell me you can do without water?

Camel: Yes, I can. There are no rivers or lakes in a desert. But that does not bother me. I can drink 200 bottles of water at a time.
Lion: Really! You must have a big stomach!

Camel (proudly): Yes, I have a big stomach. I can store water for a week. I can store food for two weeks even.

Lion (showing a lot of interest): Do you store food in your stomach?

Camel: No, I don’t. I store it in my hump. I eat a lot of food at one time. Then I don’t need to eat for a fortnight.

Lion: That’s interesting. But what do you eat?

Camel: I eat leaves, but there are no trees in a desert.

Lion: What do you eat there?

Camel: There are thorny bushes in the desert. I eat the thorns. The thorns don’t prick my thick tongue.

Lion: How funny!

Camel: Mr King of the Forest, please come with me to the desert.

Lion: No, I’d better not. I can’t walk on burning sand, I can’t store food and water and I can’t eat thorns. Good bye and good luck, Mr Ship of the Desert.

i. icy cold regions
ii. hot wet regions
iii. dry hot regions
THEMES

- Animals — Animal habitats
- Different regions

Through this unit, introduce the class to different regions like desert areas, cold mountains, hot jungles etc. Then discuss with the children which animals are found in these places. Show the class, pictures of different animals and talk about how they are suited to their habitats, e.g. webbed feet and feathers of the duck, fur of the animals in the cold regions etc.

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM TEACHING

- Read the poem with stress and intonation enacting all the animals and birds mentioned.
- Emphasise the action-words through different movements.
- Correct pronunciation of the words listed in the text may be practised like quiet/quite.
- Also practise the words with similar sounds and different meanings. Let the children make a list and put it up on the blackboard.
- Encourage children to guess the meanings of difficult words, before you explain them.
- The class can take turns to act out the play 'The Ship of the Desert' with appropriate expressions and actions. Try to find other interesting plays for the class to enact. Masks and costumes can be added for interest. Songs like these can be created.

Gently laughs the donkey,
At the break of day,
If you do not feed him,
This is what he’ll say.
“He haw! He haw!”
This is what he’ll say.

Sweetly chirps the birdie
At the break of day
If you do not feed her
This is what she’ll say
“Tweet-tweet! Tweet-tweet!”
This is what she’ll say.
